No. 9

For many people, this is their favorite time of year...and for good reason! The blazing heat and humidity of the summer months gives way to the crisp, cool air that marks the arrival Fall. Our daily routines are changed to accommodate shorter days, and we oftentimes find ourselves spending more and more time inside our homes as the afternoon sunshine quickly evaporates into evening darkness. One pitfall of this seasonal tendency can be seclusion. Gone are the late afternoon talks in the yard with our neighbors. Dinners out with friends and family are curtailed because of the earlier nightfall. And church—especially on Sunday and Wednesday nights—becomes rather optional.

The writer of Hebrews gives a timely encouragement in the twenty-fifth verse of chapter ten: "Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—all the more as you see the Day approaching." God has ordained the church to be the channel of comfort, care, and cheer for our brothers and sisters in Christ. We have two special opportunities to do just that here at First Baptist this month. The first is our Men's Fellowship Breakfast on Sunday, September 14th. Come at 7:30am to enjoy a great breakfast and devotional word, and some even better fellowship. The second is our Back to Church Sunday on Sunday, September 21st. This is a great opportunity to invite a friend, co-worker, or neighbor who is not currently attending a church of their own to join you in worship for this special Sunday service. Hope to see you there!

For His Glory,
Anthony
